

Lexington Boulevard
Animal Hospital

SENIOR PET SCREENING CHECKLIST

Owner observation are an important aspect of health care of all pets, but are especially important in the senior pet. It helps us to ensure that nothing is overlooked, and tells us about some of the signs that might not be evident on a physical examination.

Check the box in the areas that apply.

	Yes	No	Additional Information
Weight Gain
Weight Loss
Appetite Increase
Appetite Decrease
Diarrhea
Colitis (stool with mucus or blood)
Constipation / Difficult Defecation
Increased Drinking
Increased Urine
Coughing
Weakness after Exercise
Excessive / Increased Panting
Lumps / Tumors
Skin Problems
Bad Breath
Sore Gums
Difficulty Chewing
Muscle Tremors / Shaking
Weakness / In Coordination
Difficulty Climbing Stairs / Stiffness
Diminished Vision
Diminished Hearing
Increased Vocalization / Whining
Changes in Sleep / Wake Cycles
Indoor Elimination in View of Family
Decreased Interest in Petting / Affection
Gets Lost / Confused
Decrease Self-grooming
Diet / Treats
Current Medication (Dose & Frequency)

---

SENIOR PET SCREENING CHECKLIST (Continued)

Please provide any additional information on this page.